26 Dec 2000

Dear Helen,

Was happy to hear you enjoyed the things I sent. There,s a mystery about my maternal Grandfather that has more than one person still trying to find out about him too.

I think the Uncle Byron must have been Polly Mary Read Canfield and her husband Platt Canfield's son. Check page 36 top part in your Read Book and then on page 41 32-4G Byron William Canfield. Is this the connection maybe? The date of his letter and the town match don't they?

I'm still waiting to hear from the lady in Chardon about things she may help fill in for me. The one thing I haven't found yet is where my Grandmother's parents got married but hopefully I will. There other person I'm having trouble about is my maternal Grandfather's Grandfather's side but I'll keep trying.

In my searching through Penn. I have seen the name "Reed" on maps there back in 1857 and that of course made me wonder if they may be of our side just a change of spelling that, as it,s been known to happen.

On the Sedgwick side, you sent me 8 pages titled Descendants of William S. Sedgwick. It starts with William London England around 1600's and ends with Robert died at sea 1683. I think some of this is on some of the papers I sent you that I had.If you have any other than these on the Sedgwicks please do send them. Thank you.

I guess I still retain some old stock of our people since I like to saddle up my horse and load the packs on the other and head to the wilderness of Colorado to camp and fish or just to enjoy the country. We have a camp trailor but don't always use it. I love riding my horse until the saddle sores get too big on my behind.

I'll try and give somemore or better lineage on my Louisa KIng Rush's side. Most of the older info I got from Chardon's newspaper, library and cementary some from other sources like my Mom and her sisters and some from knowing myself.See the attached paper.

As I find other things on the family I will only be too happy to share them with you. I have always thought I should have been a detective since I love to snoop and find things. I belongs to the search and rescue with my dog but haven't done much of it since I lost my old dog. I wasn't real hep on the dead ones.

I hope the holidays were good for you and your family and that the New Year is a great one. Take care!

Sincerely,

Karen

Most all of the above are buried in the Chardon Villiage Cemetary. My father's family were from the Cleveland area and Germany and Ireland. Hope this helps some.

P.S. I'm kinda confused on who was Amasa Read Sr.'s parents. Were they:

John Read Jr. b. about 1685 in Norwich CT and Hannah Palmer? or who?

The following is found in the history book:
Pioneer and General History of Geauga Co. Ohio 1880

The part on Chardon was done by J. D. Converse articles furnished by E. D. Canfield published in the Geauga Democrat (now the Republican) in 1870-71 page 278: July 1812 - Samuel King comes to Chardon with family. Returned to the East in 1812 with family. Spring of 1813 Samuel, by himself, comes back to Claridon - finishes court house in Chardon in fall 1813 page 279: June of 1813 Samuel's family returns to Chardon to live in old court house. Family consists of wife Hannah - daughter Hannah 12 yrs, sons. Warren 8 yrs, John 4 yrs, and Jalez 18 months. Samuel is 1st adult to die in Chardon. 6 Feb 1817 age 38 yrs. His daughter Hannah and son Warren die too. Hannah 2 Mar 1817 and Warren 6 Apr 1817. All of a fever. Mrs. Hannah King his wife has a baby girl after his death in 1817 named Lodica. Lodica marries Benjamin Cowles. Mrs. H. King ~~sp~~ marries Aaron Canfield in 1835. She spends her later life after Aaron dies with her son Jalez in Chardon.

page 281 In 1813 the family of Jalez King (brother of the above Samuel) moves to Chardon. They stay with Samuel for awhile then live in the old Anthony Carter's place, then into a house built by a Mr. Jordan.

In the winter of 1813 Mrs. Jalez King has the 1st white child, a girl, born in Chardon. Mrs Hannah King being present at the birth. The girl was named Laura and she married Obed P. Hale

In the summer of 1814, Jalez builds a house in Chardon and moves in. When Jalez moves in, it says just he and his wife (no Laura mentioned but that could just be a slight ommission) It says Mrs King died a long time before him. He dying in 1838.

page 304 July 16, 1814 Samuel paid $30.00 on contract account for lots # 87, 88, 95 and 96.

page 314. July 27, 1868 Chardon - Jalez King (has to be Jalez's nephew) is listed as a director of the Chardon building company.

page 372. Listed under Chardon's Machinics, J.A. King as a carriage maker and blacksmith (This is got to be Jalez's nephew again - due to year).

Dear Helen. April 6, 2003

This Galvez and Achsah thing is still bugging me. Chardon library said they have no records on divorce until 1850 - no help there I guess.

I think Galvez and Achsah had only one ~~child~~ daughter Louisa A. King (my Grandmother Mary Louise Rush Ferris' maternal Grandmother) and one son Samuel King. I think the Galvez listed later, after 1838, is the nephew and he's the one who married that Harriett Randall. That he may have been in charge of his Uncle's estate since his father Samuel was already dead (1817).

Your information on what Achsah got from Galvez's estate can be right, that year support was just listed on that paper but more was on something else. They had been married atleast 21 years. Maybe she had her own money from her Dad and mother and she didn't need it too!

I doodled on the following, enclosed papers. What do you think? In the letters from 7 Sept 1902 Uncle Byron, he says Aunt Achsah had 2 husbands, he thought. The first one he could not remember the name, but thought the second was King. He could be wrong but was sure one of them King some relation of Galvez King. So far as he knew Mrs. Louisa Rush was her (Achsah's) only child. This letter was addressed To Eva Canfield.

The other letter is from a Dwight Reed to Eva Canfield dated 29 Aug 1902. I think I sent you copies of all those.

I guess I'll try and find Jabez's 1st wife and see what comes up with that. Matching up dates like I tried seem to do better. In copies of Thomas Rush's will, estate, ect Louisa is called Achsah - maybe what the A in Louisa A King stands for. You want me to send you copies of any of the things I have on Louisa and Thomas Rush? I have copies of his will and stuff. Let me know and I will.

I'll keep looking for things to prove we have the right Achsah and Jabez. Part of the fun in family history search huh?

Take care.

Karen.

Dear Helen,

I do hope all is well with you and your family and that the holiday was enjoyable for all.

My snooping for family history has become quite interesting and informational. It is taking time but it's also still fun to do.

I have been able to get some death, and marriage certificates, names and places of family members that I did not have and even somes wills, deeds and so forth. I even have a paper for the DAR that was approved in 1991 for a Jeanne McCaugley Nott Kissinger using Amasa Read (Reed) Sr. All the information she used matched all that I have and what you have in your Read Book I got from you.

I found that my G-Grandmother Elizabeth Rush's name is really Sarah Elizabeth but no luck in finding where she and my G-Grandfather Edward Rush were married. I'm still working on that one.

I have been in contact with a lady in Chardon who has done a history on the Chardon Villiage Cemetary and will be getting some of her findings later. I also found a lady in Penn. who has helped me with my Grandmother's mother's family.

Enclosed are papers I got from my Mom but don't know who sent them or where they were from plus some copies of pictures of my Grandmother Mary Louise Rush, who is a G-Granddaughter of Achsah Read and Jabez King. There is also a copy of Everette Rush's discharge from the Civil War. I will try to find the daughter, Louisa King, of Jabez and Achsah King and her daughter with Elliot Cowles Sarah Cowles Hall.

Anything I find that I think you might like a copy of I will send them to you. Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Karen Coffman

Dear Madam:

Since receiving your letter of Aug. 25th, I have examined the "REED BOOK" mentioned in my former letter to you, and find there the genealogy of your Nathaniel complete. Presuming you have not access to the book, I take pleasure in sending you the copy.

John Read of Rehoboth and his Descendants, Page 186.

John Read of Rehoboth came to America with the great fleet in 1630. He is supposed to be son of William by his wife, Lucy Henage; and was brother to William of Weymouth. He was born in 1598. The first that is know of him, after his arrival, was in Waymouth in 1637. He was of Dorchester in 1638, and went from there to Braintree (now Quincy). In 1643 or '4 he went with Rev. Mr. Newman and his Church to Rehoboth. His name is the third on the list of purchasers of that township. He was a man of large property for those times, and held the office of constable, which was the chief executive office in town. He lived at what was called the Rim, which is now in Sekonk. Ancient Rehoboth, was divided into seven towns; viz., Rehoboth, Attleborough, Seekonk, Pawtucket, Swansey, Barrington and Cumberland. Many of his descendants are still living within the bounds of ancient Rehoboth. He kept a public house, and was a prominent and leading man. There is a record that Richard Ponton was "put" to John Read in 1644.

Mrs. Read's Christian name was Sarah. He died Sept. 7, 1685, aged 87; and his gravestone is standing in Seekonk old burying-yards, inscribed " J. R., Act 87, D. S. 1685. Their children were: Samuel; William; Abigail; who was baptized in Dorchester the 30th of tenth month, 1638; John; born at Braintree Aug. 29th, 1640; Thomas; Nov. 9th, 1641; Ezekiel and Zachariah (twins), who died in infancy; Moses born October, 1650, Mary, January, 1652; Elizabeth January 1654; Daniel, March, 1655; Israel 1657; Mehilable, August 1660.

Samuel, son of John of Rehoboth, was constable of Mendon in 1681; married Hopestill Holbrook in 1668, made freeman, Oct. 15, 1673. John, son of Ebenezer and Sarah, born at Mendon, Aug. 3, 1707; settled early in life in that part of Windham Connecticut which is now within the bounds of Mansfield. Children. Amasa, Nathaniel, Timothy, Joshua, Rachal.

Nathaniel, son of John, settled when young in Tyringham, Mass.; but afterwards emigrated to Ashtabula in the State of Ohio, wherehe died. He was in the Battle of Bunker Hill. In the book, the line of descent to this Nathaniel Read stops, and remains with yourself to continue, if you are sufficiently interested.

Your Sedgwick authority makes him, Nathaniel (5), a Son of Amasa Read and Fannie Spring; while the book makes Amaza (5) and Nathaniel (5) brothers.

The book does not mention who Nathaniel (5) or Amaza (5) married, but the latter has numerous sons and daughters, among them Amaza (6).

The name Spring occurs. One Sarah R. (4) marries Col. John Spring, of Uxbridge. They have a son John (5) and a Rev. Samuel Spring (5) an orthodox minister in Newburg port.

Rev. Samuel Spring (5) had a son Gardner (6) an orthodox minister of distinction Rev. Gardner Spring D D in New York City; and his daughter married Paul Spofford of New York a celebratedmerchant.

Another line from John Read of Rohoboth runs thus:- John (1) William (2) Isaac (3) James (4) Nathaniel (5) born in 1792, married Deborah Oct. 27, 1813. He was for many years constable of Salem and died in 1853 aged 62. He married Deborah Witham 1st wife and Hannah Leach his 2nd wife. Children:- were Henry L. born in 1814, Lucy D; Samuel. These can be traced down to near the present time but is not in the line of your Nathaniel.

Some of these Rohoboth Reeds spell their names Reed, others Read. Their numbers are legion.

Sincerely yours,
Dwight Reed.

Dear Eva:

Am not very well posted in the Read Family, but will do the best I can. I was born in 1836, and father died in 1841, being 49 at his death. He was Born, therefore, in 1792. Mother was a year older than Father, so, of course, was born in 1791. She died in 1859. They were married in Tyeringham, Berkshire Co. Mass., in 1813, coming to Ohio in the fall of 1814. Burr at that time being six months old, Mother had our Brother-Uncle Ira Read that lived in Mecca and three sisters. Aunt Acsah, I think she had two husband. The first one of which cannot remember name, but think the second one was King. I may be wrong in this but am sure one of them was King, some relation of Jabez King.

So far as I know Mrs. Louisa Rush, was her only child. Aunt Sally married a North, as you say, and lived in Williamsfiled, Trumbull Co. Ohio. She had one son and two daughters. Aunt Irene the youngest also lived in Williamsfiled and married a man by the name of Tuttle. They had a swarm of children, somewhere from eight to fifteen. They were good folks, but in the language of Aunt Ophelia in speaking to St. Clair in Uncle Toms Cabin, so shiftless. When I was eight or ten years old was there once, with Mother. They lived at that time in a log house, and I thought there I never had such a good time. Learned from Edmund who has lately made me a visit of Mathew Reads death - thus all the older ones are going and new generations taking their place.

I realize the fact that I am growing old. It is even harder work for me to write than it once was. Made Minnie a visit of two weeks thissummer. They are very comfortably situated and doing fairly well. Thought perhaps your Mother might make her home with you hereafter but see from the Chardon Paper that she like Aunt Sallie cannot break away from old associations.

With much love to you all, I am as ever
Wife sends love to all.

Your Uncle Byron
